

Outcome

At anytime and anywhere, the right attending practitioners, (or when appropriate, the medical examiner) can easily record the proposed cause of death

Outcome

Attending practitioners feel confident in proposing and recording the right cause of death

Outcome

Registrars get the information they need to register the death within 5 days following medical examiner sign-off

